

trunk

Futility, its premeditated cisterns, silver fire extinguishers without what is required to be a fire extinguisher, in a closely positioned group so that they form a hated block—a hated block out of an amount of premeditated cisterns—that can be put on the trunk of a truck equally for to see...

Just as in a chlorophyll accident, there are abandoned convergences.
Ripe, not bandits

there were children otherwise emptying a jug so that their cry wouldn't be let in the block wouldn't woodcut this inning jug from the trunk from the oracle its waterclock directions for a box disappearing box boxing Across no longer an abyss only those boats Only boat abyss mold horn to horn Horn to horn—from through hunted Behind forlorn temerity to flood to box by box energy fennels in hands the size of pocketwatches but not yet

Halfway there made you laugh Melt the nightguard in laughter milk in milk some of them run that way to search for you Rather am become up languished a hammer Am between dirt milk of milk Milk of milk—whether apart crescent If periscope skins them than flies then fly then fly
 some of them run that way to search for you
